The UPPA welcomes more than 1700 foreign students per year (1737 foreign students in 2015/2016).

With 378 bilateral Erasmus+ agreements (179 partner universities) and 89 inter-university collaboration agreements, it is instrumental in exchanges between students, lecturers and researchers worldwide.

Owing to its geographical proximity to Spain, the UPPA is developing original collaborations with cross-border universities in both teaching and research.

The international office

Is responsible for providing information to UPPA students who wish to travel abroad, and welcoming International students.
