

Before going back home

Your accommodation – outgoing inventory

If you are living in university halls of residence, you must give CLOUS management at least 1 month's notice of your departure.

If you are living in private accommodation, you must notify your landlord or estate agent in writing, 3 months before your departure.

Other formalities

You must

- Close your bank account,
- If you are living in a private accommodation, end all contracts you may have, 1 month before your departure: electricity, gas, telephone operator, water board, Social Welfare and inform the Family Allowance Office (CAF),
- Drop in to the International Office to inform them of your departure date and have your departure statement signed.