The UPPA welcomes more than 1700 foreign students per year (1771 foreign students in 2017/2018).

With over 300 bilateral Erasmus+ agreements (188 partner universities) and 100 inter-university collaboration agreements, it is instrumental in exchanges between students, lecturers and researchers worldwide.

Owing to its geographical proximity to Spain, the UPPA is developing original collaborations with cross-border universities in both teaching and research.

The international relations office

Is responsible for providing information to UPPA students who wish to travel abroad, and welcoming International students.
