Under the aegis of David Bessières, delegate Vice-President in charge of International Relations, and of two advisors, Christian Paroissin (Student and teacher mobility) and Jean-Yves Puyo (Cross-border collaboration), the International Office, managed by Marielle Peyret, implements the international policy defined in the five-year contract of the UPPA:

* Definition of priority target areas (Spain, Latin America, Maghreb);
* Consolidating the management of international relations;
* Promoting cross-border collaboration.

Its aims are to encourage European and international mobility among students and staff, and to develop collaboration initiatives with universities abroad.
